Community Outreach Event: The Lord's Place

From the President's Desk

Dear Fantastic Executive Women of the Palm Beaches Members,

Executive Women of the Palm Beaches is thriving! We have a full schedule of events, very active committees, and a rising membership. Now is the time to join Executive Women! Please share that message with women in leadership positions who would benefit from our networking, professional development, and philanthropy!

With all of the activity going on, it's hard to believe that we are only five months away from April 2, the date of our Cynthia Allen Gracey Women in Leadership Awards luncheon (WILA). More information about sponsorship and award nominations is headed to your inbox soon. A big shout out and thank you goes to this year's co-chairs Elizabeth Hamma, Mary Lewis-Mowes, and Katie Klause-Newitt.

As we gear up for the holidays, I want to express my sincere gratitude to all our EWPB members. Thank you for raising the flag for Executive Women and making our organization a beacon for supporting and elevating female leaders. I look forward to seeing you at our Annual Holiday Luncheon on December 10! Don't forget to register!

Vicki Pugh

What made you want to join EWPBF?

"I joined this networking group after being introduced at an event for the Delray Chamber, where Vicki Pugh was a speaker. The incredible work of this women's foundation in our community inspired me to connect with like-minded professionals. Together, women can break down barriers, share knowledge, and amplify each other's strengths. When we collaborate, we create opportunities for growth, empower one another to reach new heights, and make a lasting impact—while also giving back to the community that supports us. I wanted to be part of a network that nurtures this spirit of unity, support, and collective success."

How has EWPBF helped your career so far?

"EWPBF has been an invaluable resource in expanding my personal connections with other professional women, some I have known prior and a lot of new faces. Through the foundation's events and networking opportunities, I've been able to connect with a diverse group of accomplished women who share similar goals and values. The collaborative environment encourages genuine relationships. Being part of this supportive community has provided me with access to new opportunities, insights, and a network of women who uplift and empower each other."
