

The official newsletter of the Executive Women of the Palm Beaches Foundation

A Message from Our President:

Dear EWPB Members,

While the Florida temps may still be sizzling, so is our calendar of events! As autumn approaches, Executive Women of the Palm Beaches is heating up with powerful programs, inspiring gatherings, and meaningful opportunities to connect, learn, and lead. We're kicking off the season with our Season Opener on Wednesday, September 17 at Morton's The Steakhouse—an evening of great conversation and connection. Then, on Monday, October 6, don't miss a compelling training session led by Erin Collins, Executive Director of the Florida Alliance to End Human Trafficking, titled "Hidden in Plain Sight: Myths, Facts, and What You Can Do to End Human Trafficking."

Later in the month, we'll come together for our Fall Foundation Luncheon on Thursday, October 23 at the West Palm Beach Marriott, where we'll proudly recognize the accomplishments of our Kwasman Awards winners. We're also thrilled to share that we received a record number of applications for our Scholarship Program this year! Our dedicated committee is hard at work reviewing submissions, and we'll be announcing the recipients at a special October 14th reception at Extraordinary Charities.

Looking ahead, save the date for our festive Holiday Luncheon on Friday, December 12 at PGA Resort. It's sure to be a joyful celebration to close out a remarkable year. This season is also the perfect time to deepen your involvement with EWPB. Our Membership, Resource Development, Marketing, and WILA committees are actively welcoming new members. Whether you're looking to give back, grow professionally, or build new relationships, there's a place for you to make a meaningful impact. Let's make this fall unforgettable—together.

Warmly,
Kae Jonsons
